

BIG FIGHTERS BEGIN TALKING

Jeffries and Munroe Tell How It Will All Happen.

"I'LL WIN QUICK" SAYS JEFF

"HE WILL BE EASY FOR ME"
SAYS THE BUTTE MINER.

(By James J. Jeffries.)

New York, March 13.—Now that Munroe has signed articles for a match with me to take place at San Francisco next May, he will have an opportunity to show the public just what claims he has on the heavyweight championship.

Ever since I won the title from Fitzsimmons I have been ready to meet any legitimate claimant for the honors. The list of my opponents will bear me out in this statement. I took on Sharkey, Ruhlman and Corbett, and then gave the latter and Fitzsimmons return matches.

I never was opposed to meeting Munroe. I did not hesitate to make the match because I feared him in any way, but simply because I wanted him to prove to the public that he was a worthy opponent. This he did as I have stayed six rounds with Sharkey and outpointed the sailor two to one.

I watched the bout with considerable interest, and while I believe that Munroe has improved 100 per cent since I met him at Butte, I don't think there will be anything to it when we come together again. I will defeat him so quickly that he won't know where he is at. They say with his rapid improvement he will be my equal by the time of our battle. Well, the better he is the more interesting will be the contest, for I will enter the ring in my usual good condition.

The fact that I believe I am Munroe's master does not mean that I underestimate his ability. I am going to train for the bout as hard as I have prepared for any of my other bouts, and I will start for the coast in a very short time. I will take up quarters at the same old stand, Joe Kennedy will act as my sparring partner. He is a few fellow like Munroe, and I think fights very much on the same style as the miner. I think I have a good line on Munroe after his bout with Sharkey, and I will train accordingly. When I meet Munroe I will be heavier and bigger than in any of my previous fights.

(By Jack Munroe.)

New York, March 13.—Ever since I gave Jeffries that big surprise at Butte, Mont., in our four-round go I have longed for a return match with the champion. I was far from being in condition when I met him out west. In fact, I just took a chance and fought him off the reel. Still, I had no difficulty in staying on my feet, and at the end had a shade the best of the contest. After I received the decision I made up my mind that I could defeat Jeffries, and I am more confident right now than ever before that I will beat him in our coming battle. He is a man that I have taken part in since our last meeting have simply been workouts for me. The affair with Maher was over before I had been well in my skin, and my go with Limerick was a repetition of the Maher affair. Still, both of these fights convinced me that I was right in my idea, but the real test came when I tackled Sharkey. He was one man with the experience, but I guess I had the best of him all over.

I am going to prepare for Jeffries now in my idea, but the real test came when I tackled Sharkey. He was one man with the experience, but I guess I had the best of him all over.

CLUBS AFTER HERRERA

If He Beats Yanger Tonight He Will Get a Match With Jordan in England.

(By James J. Jeffries.)

Chicago, March 13.—If Aurelio Herrera beats Benny Yanger at the American Athletic club tomorrow night, he will be matched to box Ben Jordan, English champion of the featherweights, at the London Sporting club on Derby night, May 28. This much was settled when Joe M. Wood, manager of the Mexican fighter, received a letter from Dr. Ordway, American representative of the foreign club, which contained a duplicate letter from Mr. Bettison, the matchmaker of the club, which contained an offer of a substantial purse for a fight with Jordan on the date named.

In this letter there was no stipulation about a victory over Yanger, and of course, the matchmaker knew at the time of writing the letter that Herrera had been beaten by Louis Long. They simply stated in their letter that if Herrera had no particular ill luck in future matches in this country that he could make the London match at once, receiving in addition to a purse of $2,300 his expenses.

In addition to the London offer Herrera is wanted in Philadelphia for a match with Jack O'Neill. The offer is made by Matchmaker Jack McGinnis, and allows a purse of $200 for the Mexican's end and two tickets for the round trip, the bout to be on either the 16th or the 19th, the weight to be 130 at 3 o'clock. Replying to this, Joe Wood, manager of Herrera, said that his man was not in the business of fighting light weights.

O'Neill will make 120 pounds at 6 o'clock. Wood said, "The club will offer a little more money the match is on. Herrera is a little fellow who can make 125 pounds without trouble. I am sure he will be a good match for O'Neill. He is a legitimate lightweight of about 135 pounds. I saw him weigh in Milwaukee a short time ago."

HARRIS SAYS TERRY'S

BROTHER IS A COMER

(By Jack Munroe.)

New York, March 13.—Sam Harris, manager of Terry McGovern, believes he has the makings of another champion under his wing. The newcomer is Terry's brother, Hugh, who has been fighting with considerable success around New York for about a year.

Harris has been figuring that Hugh would look well as the bantamweight champion, but wanted to be certain he would be able to capture the title held by the formidable little Frankie Neil of Frisco.

Accordingly, Harris arranged a match between the youngster and Tommy Loe, a Philadelphia kid, in which he is gunpowder in a firecracker. The battle took place Saturday night, and Harris had a ringside seat. It was one of those slugging up-to-the-nozzle six-round affairs. When it was over Harris was a happy man. McGovern, both of these fights convinced me that I was right in my idea, but the real test came when I tackled Sharkey. He was one man with the experience, but I guess I had the best of him all over.

"That settles it," declared Harris yesterday. "There will be another champion in the McGovern family. Please remember, Hugh McGovern challenges Neil for the bantamweight championship, and say I'm ready to make a substantial side bet on the result. That kid is as great a fighter as his brother ever was, and some day he will be able to whip them all."

It is understood Sam Harris contemplates taking a trip west with Jeffries and his party for vacation, and while in California will do sport to get down and settle a match between his latest protégé and Neil.

DAVE SULLIVAN TO MEET CHARLIE NEARY

Chicago, March 13.—Dave Sullivan has been matched to meet Charlie Neary in the wind-up of the Milwaukee club's show March 25. The match was consummated by a fight between the Milwaukee organizer and Neary, who came to Chicago to find an opponent for the "favorite son" of the Cream City.

Bright had little difficulty in getting Sullivan to agree to terms, the articles being agreed to as fast as they could be written down. Bright signed the contract for Neary and Jimmy Barry did the same for Sullivan.

The agreement calls for a weight of 130 pounds at 3 o'clock and a division of the purse on a basis of 75 per cent to the winner and 25 per cent to the loser. Malachy Hogan was chosen referee, the selection being made part of the articles.

Sullivan announced that he will go to Milwaukee to prepare for the fight. He will be accompanied by Jimmy Barry, who will direct his training work.

KID HERMAN WANTS

FIGHT WITH CORBETT

San Francisco, March 13.—Kid Herman of Chicago arrived here with his manager and has posted a letter to meet the winner of the Corbett-Britt match. Herman said that he had come all the way to California for the sole purpose of forcing the Denverite to put on the gloves with him, and that it will be the champion's fault if they do not meet.

Young Corbett begins training at Ocean Beach for his battle with Britt on March 25. For a week he will not attempt anything but light work, because he can readily round into form after having once gone through the grilling process of weight reducing. He figures to make the weight easily, just on the pound as he always does.

Over across the bay Jimmy Britt is following the programme mapped out for systematic conditioning. He will take off a certain amount every day and will enter the ring strong.

O'Keefe to Meet Buddy Ryan.

Jack O'Keefe, the Chicago lightweight, who it was rumored was coming to Salt Lake to fight Clifford, is now in Chicago training for a fight with Buddy Ryan to take place at Chicago next Monday night. The contest will be pulled off under the auspices of the Waverly Athletic club, a new fighting club just organized in Chicago.

PEACE AGAIN IN SIGHT

American and National Leagues
Settle Their Differences
Over Schedules.

(By James J. Jeffries.)

New York, March 13.—Through the efforts of Garry Hermann of Cincinnati, Henry Dreyfuss and Ban Johnson were brought together at the Waldorf-Astoria and shook hands. A long conference was held, during which the two leagues agreed to settle their differences over the opening dates of the National league and American league games, and it was decided that the two leagues should be in the same place at the same time. This is regarded as a victory for the National organization.

The University of Pennsylvania spent more than any other college in the country last year, the outlay of the Quakers being $68,521.47.

WATERBOY TAKES HIS

FIRST DAYS' TRAINING

(By James J. Jeffries.)

New York, March 13.—Waterboy has been on a track for the first time since his retirement last fall. All the other horses in care of Mr. Joyner had been over to the Keespehead bay course, but not Waterboy.

Waterboy was a great success. He had previously been retrained to shed work. Yesterday he took his first place at the head of the string, and the other horses followed him. The horse looked the very perfection of health, and he pranced and bucked in his very best of life and good feeling.

He was a picture. He was splendidly muscled and looked hard and firm, showing that, though he has been beneath the shelter of a barn, he has had a lot of nice work which makes the muscles of his body as hard as iron. His legs are clean and smooth and show, even at closest range, scarce a trace of the iron that was used on them.
